

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

More and more, I feel that I am unable to get honest news coverage on television.

Since Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest, a clearly biased anti-Kerry documentary merely days before the election shows clear disregard for the public.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them.
Please do not allow this misuse of the public airways.
